

GUIDELINES FOR DISPLAYING ART at PAPA GALLERY (last revision 2021)

1. All art displayed must be original. Original art is art produced from the artist's own hand; not reproduced from any published painting or photograph or copied from a source other than what the artist has a legal right to.
2. Every painting must be signed.
3. A 35% donation will be retained by the Gallery when a painting sells.
4. The PAPA Gallery retains the right to refuse any art brought in for display.
5. Once a painting is hanging in the Gallery, prices are non-negotiable.
6. Art may not be removed from display (except by sale, or special permission) during the show period it has been entered in.
7. Reproductions of your paintings (prints) are allowed for Unframed pieces and Card packs only. All other show entries must be originals.
8. Framed Art may be for sale or "Display Only". All other entries must be for sale.
9. Paintings (if unsold) cannot be re-entered in a PAPA show until two show cycles (6 months) have completed.
10. Exhibiting artists may enter works to display and/sell at the time of the next Show Change. Shows change on the last Tuesday of January, April, July, and October.
11. Exhibiting artists participating in a show must sign up to work as Docent for 3 days during the show period. (Training will be provided)

The PAPA Monthly Newsletter, "Dutch's Doodle" will remind you when it's time for a Show Change, and announce any changes, or updates that apply.
